Message

It gives me immense pleasure to share with you the much-awaited compilation "Handbook on Delegation of Powers in the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR)". The compilation was last brought out in 1995 and since then Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) has undergone a sea change not only in its mandate but also in expansion of its horizon and reach. This has resulted in decentralization of authority with an aim to achieve greater results in research. Over the last three decades plenty of orders and instructions have been issued delegating powers to various authorities. In several cases these powers were enhanced with an aim to facilitate decision making at field levels to extend greater functional autonomy to authorities down the line, in consonance with their role and responsibilities. However, these orders and instructions lay scattered and this is indeed a satisfying effort at compiling and further updating the extent of powers delegated to various authorities in ICAR. An effort has been made to further delegate powers to the senior administrative and finance heads after the cadre review to offload the burden from the shoulder of Scientist especially those in the Research Management Position (RMPs) and relieving them from the administrative chores so that they may focus on research mandate of the ICAR with greater commitment and give quality time to research. I hope this compilation will serve the purpose of a useful reference text in further facilitating the process of decision making in ICAR and help the organization achieve its mandate. Delegation leads to responsibility and I expect that this sense of responsibility will help in creating leaders at all levels which is so essential for building an organization and the nation in the process.

MESSAGE

It is a matter of great satisfaction to present the "Handbook on Delegation of Powers in the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR)" before you. Delegation and decentralization are important management tools which help in extending greater functional autonomy in an autonomous organization like ICAR. ICAR is the pioneer institution in the Government of India in the field of agricultural research and development with a pan India network. A need was felt to revisit the delegation of powers to authorities at horizontal levels across the length and breadth of the nation to facilitate decision making process. Research requires a totally different temperament and therefore it is essential that powers to be delegated at various levels so as to facilitate fast disposal of task and help the organization to achieve its mandate comprehensively and effectively. It has been my endeavour to facilitate this process of decision making and this updated compilation will help achieve the objective. I am sure that this will help in accelerated decision and saving of precious time.

MESSAGE

Changing economic scenario requires exercise of powers in sync with the objectives of the Ministry/Department as per the financial rules/regulations. Today, administration is guided by the policy of 'less government, more governance', therefore decentralization of powers at various levels will ensure greater synergy between administration and finance that would go a long way in harnessing the talent and expertise in ICAR for an effectual performance and decision making. There is an urgent need to update the Delegation of Powers in ICAR-since no updation has happened for more than two decades and this has led to longer channels and delays during decision making process thus hampering the zeal and efficacy of work force. Finance wing continues to ensure greater financial efficiency, effective use of scarce resources and strict adherence to rules and regulations and their comments aid the administration in arriving at a decision ensuring that the goals and objectives of the organization are met. Considering that powers are now being delegated on a wider scale down the hierarchy, the roles and responsibilities of finance have also increased commensurate to it. The administration and finance need to act in perfect synergy to help achieve the goals and objectives of ICAR. To that end this manual shall serve the purpose of a useful reference guide to the authorities for attaining the aforementioned goals.

FOREWORD

This is the third edition of Delegation of Powers in the ICAR. The first edition of Delegation of Powers was brought out in 1978. The second edition was brought out in 1995. Over the period, ICAR has grown in strength and spread its network to different parts of the country. There have been substantial changes in the rules and regulations of Government of India. In order to ensure smooth and efficient functioning of the organization these needs to be captured and compiled. Further, the delegation of power needs to be aligned with the changes which took place over the years. In this third edition of Delegation of Powers, all changes made up to March, 2023 have been incorporated. Further, the Delegation of Powers in several cases have been revised, keeping in view the various changes that have taken place and orders/instructions issued to this effect. Delegation has also been proposed for the newly promoted administrative and finance heads in ICAR Hqrs/Institutes in the scale of Joint Secretary after the cadre review. The whole exercise has undergone rigorous review and re-examination at highest level. I am grateful to the support and sound advice received from senior authorities i.e. Secretary DARE & Director General, ICAR, Secretary, ICAR and Financial Advisor, DARE/ICAR. The team consisting of Shri Rajesh Sahay, Director (Finance), Shri Avesh Yadav, Comptroller, NDRI, Karnal, Shri Rajneesh Kumar Singh, Comptroller, CIFE, Mumbai, Shri Manish Wadhera, Deputy Director (Finance), Shri Saurabh Muni, Deputy Director (Finance) and Shri Amitabh Singh, Senior Finance & Accounts Officer have done a highly commendable job in accomplishing this arduous assignment. I hope that this updated edition of the Delegation of Powers would be very useful to the ICAR functionaries spread across the country.

Joint Secretary (Finance)

Dated: 31st March, 2023

The third edition of the compilation 'Handbook of Delegation of Powers in ICAR' is in your hands. Since the time the last edition of the compilation was published in 1995, Indian Council of Agricultural Research has undergone a sea change. Accordingly, a committee was constituted to compile, review, re-examine and update the extent of delegation of powers to various authorities in ICAR. The committee was headed by Shri Rajesh Sahay, Director (Finance) as the Chairman and other senior officials of Internal Finance Division of ICAR namely Shri Avesh Yadav, Comptroller, Shri Rajneesh Kumar Singh, Comptroller, Shri Manish Wadhera, Deputy Director-Finance, Shri Suresh Kumar Sharma, Deputy Director-Finance, Shri Saurabh Muni, Deputy Director-Finance, and Shri Amitabh Singh, Senior Finance & Accounts Officer as members during the course of revision.

After the initial work of compiling all existing orders/instructions was over, the Committee carried out a review of redundant and archaic powers which were no longer in practice and recommended their weeding out. This was in line with the present government's initiative to weed out all archaic rules and laws. Accordingly, all such powers and activities which had become redundant over the last three decades were weeded out.

In the next stage the Committee reviewed the extent of existing powers and recommended enhancement wherever it felt that such an enhancement was necessary to reduce operational constraints and facilitate quicker disposal of work thereby achieving the mandated objective of the organization comprehensively and effectively.

Further, acknowledging the recent developments in the administrative set-up in ICAR after the cadre review of the Administrative Cadre, the Committee also recommended delegation of powers to the newly created senior positions in the Administrative Cadre to utilize their experience in quick disposal of routine administrative work of the ICAR units without bringing all routine and petty administrative matters for consideration before the personnel holding Research Management Positions (RMP) thus relieving scientific resources from assignments of a non-scientific nature as far as possible.

At the penultimate stage the whole compilation was peer reviewed by senior officials at Council and finally the matter was also reviewed by Secretary, ICAR and Additional Secretary & Financial Advisor, DARE/ICAR and their valuable inputs were incorporated in the final version.

The extent of powers delegated in this compilation must be read with the orders/instructions/ceilings issued by Ministry of Finance, Department of Personnel & Training and other Departments of the Government of India, from time to time. While utmost care was taken to keep the compilation within the framework of these orders/instructions, nonetheless in case of any deviation, the orders/instructions issued by the Government of India shall prevail.

RESOLUTION

The first Joint Indo-American Team (1955), after examining the activities and responsibilities of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research came to the conclusion that its leadership in coordinating agricultural research, was ineffective, and accordingly recommended that "the development of the Council into a well-rounded staff of specialists in the major problem fields to serve as a Senior Council of Special consultants or advisers under the Vice-President of the Council". The team also recommended a closer working relationship between the Indian Council of Agricultural Research and the Central Research Institutes, in which the later would function as an operating wing of the Council. The Second Joint Indo-American Team (1959), realizing the prevalent diversity of research responsibilities, reiterated the recommendations of the First Team in even stronger terms. They recommended that in the interest of consolidating the Central Agricultural Research Programme and assuring adequate coordination, all the Research Institutes and Commodity Committees should be brought under the full technical and administrative control of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research. The Agricultural Research Review Team, appointed in 1963, has strongly supported the above recommendations.

2. After a very careful examination of the various recommendations made by the above Expert Team, the Government of India decided to reorganize the Indian Council of Agricultural Research as a fully autonomous organization and bring under the full administrative and technical control of the reorganized Council all the Research Institutions and Laboratories now under the administrative control of the Ministry of Food, Agriculture, Community Development & Cooperation. The reorganized Council having already come into existence, the Government of India have now decided to transfer the full administrative control of the following Research Institutes, including their Regional and Sub-stations etc. to the Indian Council of Agricultural Research Society, with effect from the dates indicated there against: -

3. Government have decided to transfer all moveable and immovable property, assets including claims and actionable claims and debts and liabilities of the Institute mentioned in para 2 above to the Indian Council of Agricultural Research by a formal deed or deeds of transfer to be executed later. The nature and the form of the deeds would be determined later.

4. The Government of India will give requisite annual grants in aid to the Indian Council of Agricultural Research for financing the activities of the various Institutes mentioned in paragraph 2 above.

ORDER

Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be communicated to all State Governments, Administrations of Union Territories and Ministries of the Government of India, Planning Commission, Cabinet Secretariat, Prime Minister's Secretariat, Lok Sabha Secretariat and Rajya Sabha Secretariat.

2. Ordered also that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

Dated the 26th November 1987

CIRCULAR

Subject: Procedure for referring files to the Finance Division of the Indian Council of Agricultural Research.

In order to ensure that the cases in the Indian Council of Agricultural Research Headquarters are disposed of expeditiously, it has been decided that the files to the Finance Division of the Council may be referred as per following procedure: -

- (1) Files meant to go to Finance Division may be marked directly to the officers/ Sections (who is to deal with the file) as per distribution of work. Disposal of these files will be done at the various levels in Finance division in accordance with the powers delegated to them.
- (2) Before referring a case to Finance Division for their comments, views or concurrence, the case should be examined/ by the Sections themselves first with reference to existing rules and orders. Cases should be referred to Finance Division only where concurrence is necessary or when there is a doubt. In such cases specific points on which clearance/ concurrence of Finance is needed should clearly brought out.
- (3) In cases where rules/ orders are quoted in the notes, it would be necessary to keep copies of such orders in the file for ready reference to the Senior Officers, including Secretary/ Director General.
- (4) Precedent, wherever they exist should be quoted and, in such cases, the relevant files should be linked.
- (5) If views have been recorded by any of the officers concerned with the subject matter on behalf of the Finance Division, there is no need to refer the file again to Director (Finance) for mere confirmation of the advice already rendered. If, however, opinion of finance Division is not proposed to be accepted then the file may be referred to Director (Finance) after showing it to Deputy Director General/ADG/DS/Director concerned and indicating the reasons for disagreement.
- (6) The files/ cases where orders are clear and concurrence of the Finance Division is not specifically required as per orders on the subject, need not be referred to Finance Division. In such cases the concerned Administrative Sections will obtain approval of the competent authority without routing the file through Finance Division.
- (7) All cases requiring clarification on Rules/ orders and advice from nodal Ministries will continue to be routed through Finance Division.

All officers and Sections in the Indian Council of Agricultural Research (including ASRB, Pub. Division & Education Division) are, therefore requested to ensure that files are referred to the Finance Division only in accordance with the procedure referred to above.
