Memorandum

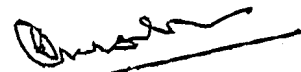

A "Park and Ride" bus service has been started from C-Haxagon (India Gate) to and fro various Central Government offices located on either side of Rajpath to ease out parking problem in these office complexes and reduce inconvenience to visiting public. The service is brought by the MOUD and DTC, Govt. of NCT of Delhi in association with NDMC, NBCC and CPWD. The scheme will service the following:-

- (i) Visitors to Govt. offices who find it extremely difficult to get parking slot in the compounds of Government buildings can now park their cars in the parking lot of C-Hexago, India Gate and take a bus ride from there to any of the Government office buildings located on either side of Rajpath.
- (ii) Central Government employees commuting to work in offices located on either side of Rajpath can now use this facility to reach their offices to and fro from Metro station.
- (iii) Government officers required to visit other Ministries/offices for meetings etc. can now avail this facility for commuting between any two offices located on either side of Rajpath without taking their personal or official car.

The bus service will be operated free of cost during trial run.

Two routes marked as P-1 and P-2 alongwith stoppages as shown in the enclosed "Route Map" in clockwise and anticlockwise directions respectively shall be operated. Both routes touch the Metro Station near Krishi Bhawan also.

The "Park & Ride" bus service will be available from 05/05/2010 onwards. It is requested that wide publicity of the service may be given amongst the visitors, staff and officers of your respective Ministries.
